Come one..come all! This event will be full of food, fun and entertainment. Local business groups and back yard chefs are to compete in a barbecue competition never seen before in Merced. The competitors will grill up tasty morsels of beef, pork and chicken to be judged not only by our judging panel but by you...the public. Sampling of these fabulous grilling creations will be available for a small fee. There will be something for everyone young and old. We will have a kids zone area with fun things to do along yummy kettle corn! Relax and listen to the sounds of local bands perform as you enjoy a refreshing beverage at our beer garden.

Come out and support your community and participant in a Labor Day event to remember. Event opens at 7am for competitors to set up, 11am to the public, judging to take place at 3pm and event closes at 8pm.
